

Alex Axinte is an architect, researcher and educator who lives and works in Bucharest. Alex graduated from the University of Architecture and Urbanism in Bucharest (2004), obtained a Master of Social Science (2018) at Sheffield Methods Institute and was awarded a PhD at the Sheffield School of Architecture, University of Sheffield (2024). Alex was a guest collaborator at the Faculty of Sociology and Faculty of Architecture in Bucharest and at the Sheffield School of Architecture and since 2025 is a Lecturer at Landscape Design department, Horticulture Faculty, USAMV, Bucharest. He investigates and supports informal practices of commoning in the context of collective housing in the post-socialist city. Alex is involved in action research projects, applied education, participatory design and cultural and civic activation and is co-founder of the spatial practice studioBASAR (2006). In the context of his PhD research, he initiated the OPEN Garage (2020) space-project for research and community activation and The Bucharest Map of Neighbourhood Libraries (2022) engaged research.