

Prof. Ana Maria Zahariade, vice-president for architectural competitions in OAR-Bucharest branch, is architect and teaches theory of architecture at the University of Architecture and Urbanism in Bucharest. Since 1989, involved in the architectural research and its connections to larger cultural milieu; Herder Prize; Getty and Getty-NEC research grants; fellow of the Nantes Institute of Advances Studies. Latest volumes: Symptoms of transition, Architecture in the communist project, Romania 1944-1989. Founder and chief-editor of the annual journal Studies of History and Theory of Architecture (sita.uaum.ro).