EXHIBITION UIA MEMBER SECTIONS EXHIBITORS DOSSIER

Welcome to the World Congress of Architects 2026 UIA Barcelona

The UIA 2026 Barcelona World Congress of Architects will take place from 28 June to 2 July 2026 in the city of Barcelona, hosted across three main venues: the Centre de Convencions Internacionals de Barcelona (CCIB), the Disseny Hub Barcelona (DHub), and the Tres Xemeneies (Three Chimneys).

Convened by the International Union of Architects (UIA), a non-governmental organization that brings together national architects' associations from over 120 countries, collectively representing more than a million architects, the Congress stands as a major international event in the fields of architecture and urbanism.

Organized by the Consejo Superior de los Colegios de Arquitectos de España (CSCAE) as a member section of the UIA, in collaboration with the Col·legi d'Arquitectes de Catalunya (COAC), the Congress will be hosted in Barcelona, three decades after the city last welcomed the UIA Congress in 1996.

The UIA Member Sections Exhibition at the UIA 2026 Barcelona World Congress of Architects will be hosted at the DHub venue (Plaça de les Glòries Catalanes, 3738), a leading design center that integrates historical and contemporary design collections.

The core objective of the UIA Barcelona 2026 Congress is twofold: to serve as a meeting place for professionals, and to offer an exceptional showcase of world architecture open to both professionals and the wider public. In this context, the space dedicated to the UIA Member Sections Exhibition is oriented towards offering the public attending the Congress, but also others visiting the city, the unique opportunity to discover architecture from around the world.

We strongly encourage each UIA Member Section to use its stand to highlight the most relevant and exemplary architectural work from its own country. By presenting the best architecture in their country, the Sections will collectively create a remarkable global panorama and a unique display of contemporary international architecture that will stand as a unique contribution to the UIA 2026 Barcelona World Congress of Architects.

The DHub, home to the Design Museum, is a building widely visited by the general public. During the Congress, the DHub will also host an exhibition titled "Retrospective of Catalan Architecture" organized by the Barcelona City Council as part of the World Capital of Architecture 2026 program. The access to the DHub venue will be free of charge during the exhibition.

In this way, the citizens of Barcelona and its visitors will be able to enjoy two major exhibitions: the local legacy (the Catalan Retrospective) and the exhibition of the UIA Member Sections, which reflects the diversity and richness of architecture being produced around the world.

We encourage all UIA Member Sections attending in Barcelona to prepare engaging and impactful materials that will powerfully exhibit your nation's architecture at your stand.
